Important information

After Jesus' resurrection he spent time with his disciples and told them to wait in Jerusalem and then he went back to Heaven to be with God.

The book of Acts in the New Testament tells Christians about the events on the day of Pentecost when the Holy Spirit was received by the disciples, and this enabled them to speak in tongues. This amazed the people who saw it as the disciples were speaking the different languages of all the visitors in Jerusalem. This was important as the disciples could tell everyone about God and Jesus.

Many of the disciples who received the Holy Spirit at Pentecost were baptised to show that their sins had been washed away and they were part of the Christian community. After the day of Pentecost, the disciples followed the example of the Apostles and did God's work and spread his message of forgiveness.

Christians today follow this example and guided and supported by the power of the Holy Spirit to carry on this work and spread the message in the UK and around the world, just as the book of Acts tells people the disciples did.

The Holy Spirit is one of the three persons of the Trinity, a key Christian belief of one God, Father, Son and Holy Spirit.
