

English:

- Poetry – analysis and composition, focusing on a variety of forms.
- Adventure Story – based on Marcy & The Riddle of the Sphinx.
- Portal Stories – describing changes in settings.
- Dictation, grammar, spelling & reading comprehension.

Maths

- Number & place value
- Geometry
- Rapid retrieval of multiplication facts.

Science – Animals Including Humans: Teeth and the Digestive System

- Identify the organs in the digestive system & describe their functions.
- Identify the types of human teeth & their functions.
- Investigate the effects of different liquids on our teeth.
- Understand food chains.
- Explore food webs.

Art – Developing Drawing

- Use observation skills.
- Shade & mark-making to show texture & details.
- Use simple shapes & lines to form the basis of their drawings.

Autumn Term 1

Chestnut Class

Ancient Egyptians

Computing – Systems and Networks (4): The Internet

- I can describe the internet as a network of networks.
- I can demonstrate how information is shared across the internet.
- I can explain why I need to think carefully before I share or reshare content.

P.E

- Atlas Sports x 2
- Swimming Y4 / Forest School Y3

Music – Learning to Play the Recorder with Gloucestershire Music

- Name the parts of the instrument
- Learn the names of notes to read music
- Learn how to combine notes to play songs.

R.E. – What is it Like for Someone to Follow God?

- Think about what can be learnt from the story of Noah.
- Make links between the story of Noah with the covenant, as well as making links to how people live and the promises which Christians make.

PSHE – Valuing Difference

- Define the terms negotiation & compromise & use these to manage conflict.
- Define ways of showing respect to others.
- Understand & identify stereotypes.

History – Who were the Ancient Egyptians?

- Locate Ancient Egypt in time and place.
- Locate the Nile and give reasons for its importance to Ancient Egyptian society.
- Identify anachronisms.
- Understand how monuments, such as the pyramids, have helped historians gather information about Ancient Egypt, & that much of this has only come to light in past 200 years.
- Know that Ancient Egyptians wrote in hieroglyphics.
- Understand the importance of the after-life and the Book of the Dead to their beliefs.